

Four people have dropped a book in some place. Then they found somebody else's book. Can you recreate the scenario?

- Each person visited two places.
- Each person visited the place with the same initial of their name once.
- Cyril didn't drop a poetry book, and didn't find Paula's book.
- Paula found Mark's book.
- A girl dropped a book at the mall. It wasn't a horror book.
- The adventure book was found by a girl, but not in the park.
- Mark didn't visit the shop, and he found the fantasy book.
- The person who went to the mall didn't go to the shop.
- In the cafe, either an adventure book or a fantasy book was dropped.
- Samantha dropped an adventure or horror book.
