

Japan has a long list of emperors, and the last emperor nowadays on Earth is in Japan. Which city did they choose as capital of their empire?

- Exactly one of the cities is in the prefecture with its same initial.
- Empress Jito lived right before the capital was moved to Koka.
- Emperor Konin moved the capital to Nagaoka, or into the prefecture of Shiga.
- The Niigata prefecture was chosen by Konin or Kanmu.
- Emperor Shomu moved the capital in 742 or 794. He didn't choose Fujiwara nor Heian.
- The Yamato prefecture was chosen in 694 or 794.
- The city of Heian isn't in Yamato, and it wasn't chosen in 781.
- Emperor Konin followed right after the emperor which moved the capital to Koka.
- Fujiwara was chosen in 794 or by empress Jito.
- Kyoto and Niigata have been chosen consecutively somehow.

		Year				Emperor				Prefecture
		694	742	781	794	Jito	Konin	Kanmu	Shomu	Kyoto	Niigata	Shiga	Yamato
Capital	Fujiwara
	Koka
	Heian
	Nagaoka
Prefecture	Kyoto
	Niigata
	Shiga
	Yamato
Emperor	Jito
	Konin
	Kanmu
	Shomu

		Year	Emperor	Prefecture
Fujiwara
Koka
Heian
Nagaoka

Play This Logic Grid
brainzilla.com/x/Agp/75