

Once upon a time, some English counties were threatened by dragons. In different times, four knights found the courage to fight four dragons of different colors. In which place did Sir Gervais win his battle?

- Sir Gervais fought a dragon in 530 or in 540. He didn't fight the white one.
- The black dragon was challenged in 510 or in Kent.
- The white dragon was fought 10 years after the Norfolk's one.
- Only the knight who fought in Yorkshire has the same initial in his name and in the color of his foe.
- Sir Rouland's foe was in Norfolk or in Cornwall.
- The red dragon was challenged in Norfolk or by Sir Warren.
- The dragon that terrorized Kent was black or white. Sir Bardulph didn't live there.
- Sir Warren fought the dragon 10 years after Sir Bardulph.
- The green dragon was challenged in 530 or by Rouland, however it wasn't fought in 510.
