

Persian Rugs - Zebra Puzzle

Five men, who just bought Persian rugs, are side by side. Each one bought a very specific Persian rug for his home. Try to find out which are the characteristics from Timothy's new rug.

Color: blue, green, orange, red, yellow

Name: Bryan, Casey, Garrett, Shane, Timothy

Type: oval, rectangular, round, runner, square

Symbols: birds, diamonds, lotuses, roses, stars

Price: $400, $600, $800, $1,000, $1,200

Place: bedroom, hall, library, living room, office

	Client #1	Client #2	Client #3	Client #4	Client #5
Color
Name
Type
Symbols
Price
Place

- The man who bought the $400 rug is exactly to the left of the man who bought the rug with Birds.
- Bryan is next to the client that got the Runner rug.
- The Red rug's owner is somewhere to the left of the man who bought a rug for his Hall.
- The buyer who got the most expensive rug is next to the buyer who got the Round rug.
- The Yellow rug's owner is somewhere between the Oval rug's owner and the man that spent $800, in that order.
- The man that bought the Red rug is exactly to the left of the man that bought a rug for his Office.
- Garrett is next to the customer who spent $600.
- Shane is somewhere to the right of the Orange rug's owner.
- The cheapest rug has Stars on it.
- At the fifth position is the client who bought the Rectangular rug.
- The man who bought the $600 rug is exactly to the left of the man who bought the rug with Roses.

- Casey is somewhere to the right of the customer that got the Yellow rug.
- The buyer who purchased the Round rug is exactly to the left of the man who spent $800.
- The man that bought the cheapest rug is exactly to the left of the man that acquired the Square rug.
- At the third position is the man that got a rug for his Bedroom.
- The customer that bought the rug with Stars is exactly to the right of the customer that bought the Green rug.
- Shane is next to the man who acquired the Round rug.
- The man who got the rug with Birds is somewhere between the man who got the Yellow rug and the man who got the rug with Lotuses, in that order.
- The customer that spent $800 is somewhere to the right of the Red rug's owner.
- The client that bought a rug for his Living room is exactly to the right of the client that bought a rug for his Library.

play more zebra puzzles on brainzilla.com/zebra-puzzles