

Stay at Home - Zebra Puzzle

Five families live side by side in a typical neighborhood. They are at home during the COVID-19 pandemic doing some family activities. Use the logic to find out which activity the family that has only one kid is doing.

Color: black, blue, green, red, white

Family: Clark, Davis, Martinez, Roberts, Smith

Activity: board game, coloring, drawing, origami, puzzle

Kids: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5

Pet: cat, dog, hamster, parrot, turtle

Car: crossover, hatchback, pickup, sedan, SUV

	House #1	House #2	House #3	House #4	House #5
Color
Family
Activity
Kids
Pet
Car

- The White house is next to the Red house.
- The family with 4 kids has a Cat.
- The family that has a Pickup lives somewhere between the family that is Drawing and the family that drives a Sedan, in that order.
- The family that is Coloring is exactly to the left of the family that drives a SUV.
- The Turtle lives at the second house.
- At the third house lives the family that is playing a Board game.
- The family doing Origami is next to the family that drives a Crossover.
- The Black house is somewhere to the left of the house where lives a Dog.
- The second house is Green.
- The Davis family lives next to the family that owns a Crossover.
- The Roberts family drives a Crossover.
- The Martinez family lives somewhere between the Blue house and the Smiths, in that order.
- The family that has a Cat is next to the family that drives a Sedan.
- At one of the ends there is house with only 2 kids.
- The family that owns a Crossover lives somewhere between the family that has a Hamster and the family that drives a Pickup, in that order.
- The Clarks lives next to the Davis family.
- The third house is Black.
- The family solving a Puzzle lives somewhere to the right of the Black house.
- The family that has 3 kids lives somewhere between the Clarks and the family that has one kid, in that order.
- The family that owns a Crossover lives next to the White house.
- The Clarks have 5 kids.

play more zebra puzzles on brainzilla.com/zebra-puzzles