

Alex purchased a large box of comic books from a garage sale to add to his already giant collection. As he was going through the box, he found a number of comics he already owned and decided to sell them. Figure out which comic book he found duplicates of, how much he sold each one for, and the year it was printed.

- The comic from 2014 sold for $2.50 less than the one published in 2017.
- Superbird was either printed in 2017, or sold for $12.50.
- GoRobots was in comic shops way back in 2008!
- Paladin sold for $5.00 more than Superbird.
